All-Inclusive Weddings & Honeymoons: Come to Wed, Stay to Play

April 10th, 2014
by Brooke Morton

Wanna tie knot on location and find a postnuptial paradise? These two all-inclusives have you covered from your first step into the lobby to checkout.

BIG: Now Amber Puerto Vallarta, Mexico

What You Get All meals and nibbles at seven restaurants, 24-hour room service and unlimited top-shelf liquor at five bars — one of which is swim-up — are part of the package. Three pools, an ocean trampoline, beach movie nights, dance lessons, yoga, games and sports such as kayaking and snorkeling are also included. Stay a week and celebrate with a gratis wedding package, finished off with a romantic turndown featuring a rose-petal-strewn spa tub for two, sparkling wine and chocolate-covered strawberries.

What You Don't Golf, scuba diving and local excursions, such as whale-watching and deep-sea fishing, can be arranged at the resort for an added cost.

What You Pay From $534 per couple based on double occupancy.

Cooler Nearby Activity Take a boat taxi to the sleepy fishing village of Yelapa for a taste of local life.

BOUTIQUE: Mango Bay Hotel, Barbados

What You Get Located on the west coast, this 76-room enclave specializes in dreamy sunsets as a big-day backdrop. Plus, it's right in Holetown, a safe walking distance from nightclubs and bars with salsa dancing and piano players. All meals, afternoon tea and adult beverages are included. You'll also score a glass-bottom-boat tour and a catamaran trip to swim with sea turtles. Book two weeks at the hotel (a weeklong wedding celebration plus a week afterward to unwind à deux) and wed free with a package worth more than a grand.

What You Don't There's no room service, so venture out and enjoy the scenery. Wines by the glass are included, but not by the bottle.

What You Pay From $480 per couple per night, off-season (May through mid-December).

Coollest Nearby Activity Stop by Paradise Scooter Rental and borrow a ride to better acquaint yourself with the island.
